

Fiona has attended all every Textile Showcase and is a popular tutor in the UK. We are delighted that for the first time she will both a tutor and a guest at the 2010 event. For students who like to produce a little gem, you will enjoy Fiona's workshops.

Just Two Stitches

A technique for accomplishing a design using just two basic stitches. The piece will be stitched on hessian using threads, knitting yarns and a great big needle. This workshop is suitable for those students who do not want to use a sewing machine, ideal for GCSE and Alevel students' sample pieces, suitable for abilities.

Luscious Layers

For this workshop you will be provided with a full kit. Again, all hand stitching using a luscious assortment of threads and pieces of fabric to produce a little sparkling jewel of a panel. Suitable for all abilities and very good for GCSE and A level students for sample pieces, suitable for all abilities.

The Bag/ Some Like It Hot

Using small scraps of fabric, provided and using intense hand stitching this workshop can be used to produce small wall hanging, bag or book cover. Again suitable for GCSE and A level students of all abilities.

Art Of The Doll

The tutor will provide each student with a doll which she has cut out and stuffed. The students will learn various ways of decorating it, it can become as funky or way out as you wish.....have fun.

All materials are provided for these workshops.
